Disposition of Oil from Zistersdorf

1. Sektionsrat Baselli in the Ministry for Trade and Reconstruction distributes the oil released by the Russian authorities to the Austrian Government. His superior is a certain Dr. Hellmreich who is not an expert in matters pertaining to oil. Baselli is in close contact with Erich Kuenster, Bundesratmann der Erdöelgroßhändler (federal chairman of wholesale oil dealers).
2. OROP (Handelsaktiengesellschaft fuer Erdöel-Produkte oesterreichischer und russischer Provenienz) delivers the oil distributed by Baselli. OROP's Russian manager, Ossipov, does not always deliver the quantities promised for release by the Russian authorities. Manager Reinhardt does his best to distribute the established oil allocations to the Austrian economy. Koller is the public administrator of OROP.

Öel-Pool Schuberttring 14, Vienna I

3. The Öel-Pool (Shell Floridsdorfer Mineralöelfabrik), whose refinery in Floridsdorf is under Russian administration, is in charge of oil deliveries to the western provinces of Austria. However, its supplies have recently been cut by OROP. The managers of the Öel-Pool are Naschitz, Baron Hoefft, and Heger.

Holzkonstruktions-Gesellschaft Hartl, Sieveringerstrasse 2, Vienna, XIX

4. The owner of this lumber construction company, Dr. Engineer Friedrich Hartl, formerly built oil derricks in Zistersdorf. Hartl, a former National Socialist and an anti-Communist, still travels to Zistersdorf once or twice a week.

Yuzhtrans, Wohllebengasse 9, Vienna IV

5. The company, registered in the name of its manager Popov in the Handelsregister, is a member of the State Transport Association of the USSR. Popov's Russian superior is Georg J. Stockfisch in Odessa. Stockfisch operates the main offices of the Association in Odessa, 29 Gogolskaya.
6. Yuzhtrans maintains approximately ninety-two trucks in Austria and approximately sixty-four trailers, of which thirty-two are single-axle and the remainder twin-axle. The truck park includes all types of vehicles. Twelve among them are five-ton Skoda vehicles, which were delivered during the summer of 1947 through the intermediary of NSIA in compensation for machinery. Recently, Yuzhtrans has only
